Proposed Schools (Residential Outdoor Education) (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to ensure that young people have the opportunity to experience residential outdoor education.

The consultation runs from 29 April 2022 to 22 July 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

may be published (unless your response is "not for publication").

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Partially supportive

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I think it's a great idea but think the logistics of it will be difficult. For example, who will fund it? How will children with ASN be guaranteed access?

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

I think a lot of primary schools offer this already, and legislation will put schools under unnecessary pressure. Not saying it's a bad idea though.

Q3. The proposed Bill will cover residential outdoor education provision for local authority and grant-aided schools only. Which of the following best expresses your view that independent schools or any other education establishments should not be covered by this obligation.

Unsure

Please give reasons for your response.

I'm unsure because I don't know how much private schools are governed by similar bills already.

Q4. The intention is that the obligation to ensure that residential outdoor education is provided would fall on those who are responsible for arranging the provision, e.g. education authorities and managers of grant-aided schools. Which of the following best expresses your view of this proposal?

Partially opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I think it's a lot of pressure on schools/authorities when we've already got so much to do. However, I am only partially opposed rather than fully opposed, because I do think schools would do a good job at arranging it, as we know our pupils and their interests and needs. I'm not sure how good a job education authorities would do at it.

Funding

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view of how residential outdoor education experiences should be funded?

In full by the Scottish Government

Please explain the reasons for your response. (If you consider Scottish Government funding should be provided to local authorities, please set out the mechanism for such funding, for example through block grant, ring fenced funding etc.)

If the Scottish government is proposing this well-intentioned but difficult to implement bill, then they can be responsible for funding it. I have no idea how the Scottish government funding should be supplied.

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view of how residential outdoor education experiences should be funded?

Hopefully someone who works there thought of that before proposing this bill, rather than putting undue financial pressure on parents and carers or local authorities.

Financial Implications

Q6. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

some increase in costs

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including who you would expect to feel the financial impact of the proposal, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could be delivered more cost-effectively.

I think there would be some increase in costs. Parents/carers quite often pay for these sort of things anyway, but it would be a lot of pressure on the families who are above the threshold for free schools meals but don't have enough spare income to pay for a trip. If the local authority is paying, I think it is again, unnecessary pressure on them to cut costs in other places. If the cost is somehow passed into schools, the same applies. The only good thing I can think of, financially, is the benefit to outdoor education centres and their staff.

Standard/ Quality of provision

Q7. Which of the following best expresses your view on the proposal for a quality framework to ensure the quality of the education provision of outdoor centres?

Partially opposed

Please give reasons for your response, including whether this should be done by HMIE using a quality framework as part of their inspection of schools and the extent to which, if any, it should be statutory.

At first I thought it would be a good idea, but not if it involves centres being inspected like schools.

Q8. Which of the following best expresses your view that the age range of 12 - 16 is appropriate for participation in the residential outdoor education experience?

Fully supportive

Please give reasons for your response, including whether you think other age ranges would be more appropriate.

It's a good age range because children are old enough to go away without their parents/carers (in most cases, hopefully the Scottish government is considering children with ASN and complex needs), but still in compulsory education.

Equalities

Q9. Any new law can have an impact on different individuals in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law? If you do not have a view skip to next question.

Please explain the reasons for your answer and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

The law must consider the impact on children with disabilities and their ability to access trips like this. Children who are questioning their gender identity may also find this hard, for example if rooms or activities are split by perceived gender.

Q10. How might equity of provision for all be ensured, regardless of socio-economic status? Please give reasons for your response.

Scottish government pays for it.

Sustainability

Q11. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? [If you do not have a view then skip to next question]

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

Yes, I think the proposal could have a positive impact on children's outlooks and their appreciation for the outdoors, and therefore the environment.

General

Q12. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?
